The Inside Inn At St. Louis

An Ideal Place for Visitors Right Inside the Grounds-No Tiresome Journeys to or from the City-No Crowding-No Discomfort

-Time and Money Saved. No matter who you are or what you are; no matter if your purse be slender or otherwise, if you wish to see the world's fair at St. Louis and enjoy every moment of your time, the best place to stay-indeed, the only place to stay-is The Inside The building of this splendid hostelry has marked a new departure in world's fair accommodations, it being the first time that the administration of any exposition has taken the question of lodging and creature comforts of its visitors under its personal supervision. This the world's fair management has done. The Inside Inn has been built with the same lavish hand that has marked all other construction at St. Louis. It is three stories high, 400 feet wide, 800 feet long, contains 2,257 bedrooms and can seat 2,500 people in its dining room at one sitting. Every modern convenience obtainable has been installed and the comforts thus afforded enable visitors to enjoy the sights of the exposition whenever they please and then go to their rooms for a rest out a long, tiresome journey to and from their lodgings. A great saving in time and money is consequently effected, as sight seeing can be begun directly after breakfast and continued late into the ni without any exasperating run for the las car." No admission fee other than the first is required from those guests who remain within the precincts of the fair at The Inside Inn. The Inside Inn is run on both the European and American plans and the rates are exceedingly moderate, ranging from $1.50 to $5.50 European, and from $3 to $7 American, including daily admission in both cases. The enormous capacity of The Inside Inn assures first-class accommodations for all-no matter when or in what numbers they come-but those who prefer to secure their rooms in advance may make reservations now for any period up to Dec. 1. A post card addressed to The Inside Inn. Administration Bldg., World's Fair Grounds, St. Louis, will bring you an
